

Yumeki Ohashi

Yumeki Ohashi, a world class concert pianist with exceptional musical talent for European music dated in the period of XVIII –XXI Century. With her wide repertoire range, she is thus exposed to various genres of music works ranging from German, French, Austrian, Czech and Slovak Republic's composers. Being versatile in all areas lead her to various concert appearances and performances worldwide!

Ms Yumeki Ohashi's rose up to fame from all the performances throughout Europe with articles being published in newspaper reviews! Some of the major concert halls she performed in are National Smetana Museum, Martini & Gallery Hall in Liechtenstein Palace, Bertramka Atrium, Japan Embassy in Prague, Castle Dolna Krupa.

Despite her fame, she remains humble and believes in passing on her dedication and passion in music to others who also love music. She conducts master classes for students of all ages worldwide competently, offering them real highly qualified music education of international level! Furthermore, she also conducts International Piano Masterclass with the focus on "Stage Performance – Mastering performance in concert hall" in Paris France.

Furthermore, Ms Yiumehi Ohashi has made her entrance into Singapore to conduct this brilliant and interesting piano masterclass. She hopes everyone has an enjoyable learning experience and pass on this musical passion and spirit!

"The Sound of Yumeki evokes a delicate image of impression picture."

SÜDDEUTCH Newspapers, Germany

